INTRODUCTION

It is stated in the Private Institutions of Higher Learning Act (IPTA) 1996 that the course, Malaysian Studies is to be taught as a pre-requisite for all tertiary academic programmes.

This is to ensure that all graduates from Private Institutions of Higher Learning are exposed to essential information about Malaysia. This will cover various aspects of Malaysian history, system of governance and legislation, vital national plans, development, social and current issues. This knowledge is useful to graduates in both the aspect of personal development and the nurturing of the unique Malaysian culture.

The future graduates of Private Higher Education Institutions will not only be well-versed in their own professional field but will also have a self social and national consciousness.

AIMS

The aim of this course is to produce citizens who are loyal to the country, visionary and proud to be a Malaysian, who are able to face challenges and promote Malaysia internationally.
