Special Collection developed in 2022:

Indigenous Peoples of Malaysia Collection

Southeast Asian Societies on Film Collection

The Library organised two major exhibitions in 2022 in tandem with the curation and development of two special collections

MONASH University | MALAYSIA

Indigenous Peoples of Malaysia (17 May - 27 May 2022)

This exhibition highlighted a selection of library resources and Monash research works related to Indigenous Peoples of Malaysia. Speakers were invited to deliver lunch hour talks where they shared their experiences and research passion. An archive of the exhibition can be accessed at https://mumlib.com/indigenous_exhibition.

Southeast Asian Societies on Film (3 Oct - 15 Oct 2022)

The exhibition featured displays on relevant Monash research as well as a selection of SEA films at the library level 1 foyer during the exhibition. Film screenings also ran throughout the duration of the exhibition, some of which were accompanied by short talks by Monash film studies researchers. An archive of the exhibition can be accessed at https://mumlib.com/SEAfilms_exhibition.

In conjunction with Diversity and Inclusion week, the Library hosted a showcase of relevant Monash research in collaboration with the Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

Diversity and Inclusion Research Showcase
(12 - 15 September, 2022)

The Library also offered exhibition spaces for displays of student work from the various Schools, available upon request.

Capture your Canopy
(21 - 25 November, 2022)

World Day against the Death Penalty
(8 - 14 October, 2022)

Launch of Library Helpdesk

In October 2022, the MUM Library Helpdesk portal was officially launched to streamline the queries received by the library.

User Satisfaction Survey

In October 2022, a User Satisfaction Survey was carried out. Areas of improvement have been identified and action plans are being implemented.
