RESPONSIBILITY FOR UNIT CHOICE

Students are advised that, while the course advisers will endeavour to give every possible assistance concerning unit selection, the responsibility remains with the student to ensure that units selected meet the course specific regulations and requirements. The Faculty of Business & Economics bears no responsibility for student error in unit selection. For more details on responsibilities, students must refer to the education policy in particular the section addressing responsibilities of staff and students at Monash University.

Students should refer to the University Handbook for further information on course and unit detail
<http://monash.edu.au/pubs/handbooks/courses/B2026.html>

It is strongly recommended that students retain a copy of the relevant course and unit handbook(s) and consult it when seeking information about the education policy and course and unit-related matters. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information provided is correct at the time of publication. Monash University reserves the right to alter this information should the need arise.
