Your English Language Pathways To Undergraduate And Graduate Studies

Monash English Bridging

The Monash English Bridging (MEB) course equips students with the tactical skills necessary to succeed in study at Monash University. MEB is tailored for those who need added assistance in English.

MEB provides a learning environment for students to develop their English language skills and academic study skills required to be successful at a tertiary education level.

Classes focus on academic skills preparation for reading, writing, speaking and listening, note-taking and research that students will undertake within their Monash courses.

The MEB course offers an immersive international experience at Monash University Malaysia, bringing together students and professionals from all over the world.

Via MEB without IELTS as an exit point

- MEB
- Pass MEB
- MUM studies

Normal entry pathway with IELTS as an exit point

- Meet academic requirements
- Meet IELTS requirement
- MUM studies

Benefits

On successful completion of the MEB pathway, students will have:

- Direct entry into most Monash courses without needing to retit IELTS
- Well-developed academic skills
- Undertaken world-class language training in a caring environment
- Undertaken practical and effective preparation for the demands of academic life at Monash
- Developed new life-long friendships

Assessment

Every assessment task in the MEB pathway relates directly to the students’ future academic study. Assessment tasks reflect the work they will do in a Monash University course. To pass MEB, students must successfully complete a series of tasks that test their ability to use English for academic studies.

Assessment tasks include:

- Listening comprehension
- Reading comprehension
- In-class essay
- In-class tutorial discussion
- Research report/essay
- Oral presentation
- Group participation

There are also progressive assessment activities which provide students and teachers with ongoing feedback on performance. These tasks build up the readiness towards formal assessment tasks.

Lee Jun Khee
Malaysia

“The MEB is not only an English course, but also an opportunity to experience university life before I get into undergraduate studies. It also prepares me for the academic rigour needed.”

Waruni Prabashini Piyasena
Sri Lanka

“The MEB course provided me with an easy pathway to enter Monash University. It helped to improve my English and study skills. The MEB teachers greatly improved and nourished my language skills. My confidence was greatly boosted.”
Monash English Upper Intermediate (ME5)
Monash English Intermediate (ME4)

You may consider enrolling for the ME5 and ME4 courses if you have missed the English language requirements for entry into MEB. These are English language intensive courses to help you to achieve IELTS scores that will meet MEB entry requirements.
